

Where there is great love, there are always miracles.

Guiding Families Through the Transitions of a Life-Changing Injury

Our daughter, Mary, was critically injured in an automobile accident in November, 2009. We never wanted to give much thought as to how long this journey might last. While there have been ups and downs, the progress that Mary has made continues to bolster our faith, hope, and trust in Jesus' healing grace.

The Drake Family
Jim, Patti, and Mary

♥ VISION

That by helping families cope with Traumatic Brain Injury, they may have a transformational experience centered on faith, and inspired by hope and love.

♥ MISSION

To help families navigate through a life-changing injury so that they may find joy in the adversity.

♥ CONTACT

Jim Drake
501.804.7724
jdrake@miraclesformary.com

www.miraclesformary.com